Sikuuku.com
Email: info@sikuuku.com
Website: www.sikuuku.com

Tour Package Itinerary

4th Floor, Greenland Towers
Plot 30, Kampala Road
Kampala - Uganda
Telephone: +256-200-900-041

Tour Package Owned By

Name	Business Name	Address
Masereka Samuel	Sikuuku	Green Land Towers - Level 4 - Kampala Rd

Package Name: KAMPALA CITY BODA-BODA TOUR & ROLEX EXPERIENCE- ??

Location: Kampala

Description:
Join our guided boda-boda tour and explore Kampala like never before! Ride through the city's historical sites, bustling markets, and scenic paths for an immersive cultural adventure. Perfect for riders of all levels, the tour concludes with a tasty Rolex and a refreshing drink. A fun, unique way to experience Kampala's vibrant culture and hidden gems!

What is included;

- A high quality Boda - boda (motor bike)
- A Proffessional Boda tourist guide.
- Soft drinks (bottled water) & snacks
- Activities as per the Itinerary.
- Transfers. (pick up and drop-off- bike).
- Motor bike and helmets.
- Some Entrance fees.
- First aid equipped guides.

What is excluded;

- Entery Visas (we can help you attain one at an extra cost)
- Flight tickets. (Both International and Domestic) but they can arranged for you at an extra charge upon request)
- Travel and Health Insurance.
- Any Optional activities.
- All kinds of drinks except water
- Activities not mentioned in the itinerary
- Any other personal expenditure.

TOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1 : Kampala City Tour.

On this adventure ultimate Kampala city boda boda tour, you will meet our Boda-boda tourist guide and he will brief you about the tour itinerary, and then embark on your enticing experience. You will start your tour by first visiting The Uganda Independence Monument which is a significant landmark located in the heart of Kampala, Uganda. It stands as a symbol of the country's freedom from British colonial rule, which was achieved on October 9, 1962.

: Uganda National Museum.

After, Cycle to the Uganda National Museum to explore Uganda’s cultural heritage through extensive collections and exhibits featuring traditional tools, musical instruments, and archaeological artifacts.

: The Bahá'í Temple.

Then later on, visit The Bahá'í Temple in Kampala, Uganda, also known as the Mother Temple of Africa, is a significant religious and architectural landmark. It is the only Bahá'í House of Worship on the African continent, one of eight continental temples spread around the world. The temple is situated on Kikaya Hill on the outskirts of Kampala, offering panoramic views of the surrounding area.

: The Gadhafi Mosque.

The Gaddafi Mosque, officially known as the Uganda National Mosque, is one of the most prominent Islamic religious sites in Kampala, Uganda. Located at Kampala Hill in the Old Kampala area of the city, the mosque was completed in 2006 with funding from the Libyan leader the late Colonel Muammar Gaddafi, hence its informal name. It holds significant importance not only as a place of worship but also as a cultural and community center.

: Nakasero Market & Owino Markets.

Then later in the afternoon, you will visit the two main markets i.e Nakasero and Owino. Nakasero Market is one of the most vibrant and bustling markets in Kampala, Uganda. Located in the heart of the city, this market is a hub for fresh produce, ranging from fruits and vegetables to spices and meats. The lower section of the market is primarily open-air and features numerous stalls selling fresh food. The upper section, housed in a more structured setting, includes vendors offering a variety of goods such as hardware, textiles, and electronics. Owino Market, also known as St. Balikuddembe Market, is one of the largest and busiest markets in East Africa. Located in Kampala, it covers several acres and offers a wide range of products, from second-hand clothing and household items to traditional herbal medicines and crafts. Owino is famous for its maze-like alleys, vibrant atmosphere, and the ability to bargain for nearly everything. The market is a vital part of Kampala’s economy, providing livelihoods for thousands of vendors and offering a real taste of local life and culture. Owino Market is not just a place to shop but a cultural experience, reflecting the diversity and energy of Uganda. Then in the evening, you will engage in the Rolex local preparation methods and taste it. After, you will be dropped at at our main office - Kampala road, we say farewell. The END of the Kampala city tour.

: Optional.

Optionally, if time allows, you may visit the craft village for shopping some souvenirs, the Ndere cultural center to experience the traditional culture, the dances and music,the National Theater and also you may opt to visit the Buganda Palace, Kasubi tombs, Namugongo Martyr's shrine and its Parliament at an extra cost.

View and Book Online